About Roald Dahl's Marvellous Children's Charity

Roald Dahl's Marvellous Children's Charity has been funding specialist children's nurses for over 25 years. We also funded the UK's first ever children's epilepsy nurse specialist.

There are over 70 Roald Dahl nurses, specialising in rare diseases, epilepsy, acquired brain injury and blood conditions such as Sickle Cell. We also fund Play Specialists.

Roald Dahl nurses help seriously ill children and their families across the UK. From England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland, Roald Dahl nurses are in lots of areas.

Family grants are also available for families facing financial hardship. They help families pay for expenses such as heating bills and travel costs to and from hospital.
